and their homes will indeed be completed and handed over in the near future.

On arrival at the 'Catalköy Summit' Gary John Robb was warmly greeted by some of his old friends and spoke with Cyprus Times before appearing in front of investors.

I did nothing wrong

Robb stated that on return to the TRNC he was very happy to see the interest and trust that have been shown to him and that he done nothing wrong. According to Robb he was in Bangkok on business and delayed his return in order to prepare his defense against those who stabbed him in the back.

I am behind my word

Robb said that during his stay in Bangkok he had kept in touch with his friends in the TRNC by e-mail and telephone and that everyone was at ease and sure that he would be back, and as a well-known international businessman he was behind his every word.

As soon as possible

Mr Robb confirmed to Cyprus Times readers that he had around 700 building projects around the Karmi, Arapköy, Çatalköy and the Kyrenia areas and that around 100 uncompleted houses will be finished and handed over to their owners as soon as possible.

The dark shadows

Robb also stated that whilst his stay in Bangkok he has been tricked by his close friend and trustee and that he had tried to take over his assets. Robb said that dark shadows were close by and sometimes your closest were drawn into these shadows. Who is behind what and who? And who would benefit from the collapse of the property market in the TRNC? You do not have to be a genius to work this out!

Robb called out to those who bought houses from Aga Developments and not yet had their keys to come forward soon as possible and speak to their solicitor Mert Güçlü via telephone, fax or e-mail. Robb assured buyers that they would get a prompt reply and put into action.

Homebuyers Pressure Group

The spokesperson for the Home Buyers Pressure Group Marian Stokes said that they knew Robb would return and that he had done what was expected of him as a great businessman. Stokes said that if we go by what Robb's solicitor Mert Güçlü said and that the TRNC Government is behind the buyers and Aga Development fulfill their promises is the near future this will be an light of hope for other sufferers in the property sector.

In the meantime Marian Stokes also thanked Cafer Gürcafer the chairman of the Building Contractors Association for all his sincere speech in the evening and that they had been following and praising his efforts in the last few months.

Solicitor Guclu

The meeting ended with final comments from buyers present at the meeting. One buyer stood up and said that he had sent an e-mail to the Solicitor Mert Güçlü and was surprised by the very quick response he got from him and asked that everyone to applaud him. In response other guests responded with a standing ovation.

Another buyer said that Güçlü conducted the meeting like an orchestra chef and that he came to the meeting quite angry about what had happened and it never crossed his mind that he would leave contented.
